Taught by Paint Out winner Richard Bond, this workshop is aimed at keen beginners and intermediate-level students wishing to improve their painting skills and explore different styles and methods of watercolour painting.

The course will compare and contrast the working methods of different well-known artists, and some of the key factors that help make for a successful painting.

Topics cover:

- Painting materials and equipment
- Preliminary drawing in pencil
- Direct painting with the brush
- The controlled wash
- Using a limited palette
- Tonal painting
- Paper weights and surfaces
- Brush types and sizes

The workshop includes painting demonstrations by the tutor and constructive appraisals of students' individual work.

Price: £60
Students: £48

Children's Mini Impressionists Workshop

Studio 20, 20 Wensum Street, Norwich NR3 1HY

Experience painting like an impressionist!

Join author of Teaching Primary Art & Design and art educationalist Emily Gopaul for a Mini Impressionists Workshop for children aged 5+.

In this workshop children will explore the key concepts and techniques of Impressionism through looking at well-known examples. They will work en plein air to create their own impressionist painting on canvas after experimenting with the techniques and approaches of famous impressionists.

We will be emphasising the effects of light, mixing colours on the canvas, using complementary colours and using artist's tools and techniques.

Take home your own impressionist masterpiece!

Reportage Illustration Workshop

Studio 20, 20 Wensum Street, Norwich NR3 1HY

15
OCTOBER
10:00-12:00

Learn to draw with speed and spontaneity, capturing Norwich street scenes with Reportage Illustrator

Nick Ellwood.

During this session Nick will talk about his experience of working as a reportage artist, sharing tips and insights. You will use drawing exercises to sharpen the eye, learning to create fast, spontaneous drawings, and breaking down inhibitions of drawing in public. Nick will work with the group to help record their own experiences of Norwich. He has worked on location, drawing refugees and the camps in Northern France for Arts Council England, as well as for the BBC, English Heritage, and Random House Publishing.

Price: £15

Norwich Public Paint Out

Mousehold Heath/Kett's Heights
(Meeting point to be announced online)

A great opportunity to create art outdoors alongside experienced plein air artists and beginners alike as part of a communal event. Gathering on a famous hillside overlooking Norwich, our vista stretches from the Castle to the Cathedral, taking in the towers of St Peter Mancroft, City Hall and St John's across an historic skyline. Whatever your painting or drawing abilities, pick up a brush or pen and join us!

The Paint Out red double decker bus will be on site and features again in the evening as the competition artists take on the challenge of their first Nocturne back in the city centre.

Price: Children £5
Adults £10 • Family £20

Paint Out are revitalising the UK en plein air painting tradition for the modern audience. Our events are live demonstrations of the skills of talented artists in direct view of the general public. This is achieved through painting competitions, educational art workshops and talks, curated exhibitions, and quality art auctions at prestigious city, coast, and country locations around the UK.

Confronting Appearances

The Weston Room at Norwich Cathedral Hostry

As part of Paint Out 2017, The Hostry Festival is delighted to announce a conversation with artist and former Norwich Life Room iconoclast John Wonnacott CBE and curator and founder of EAST Prof Lynda Morris (NUA) looking at highlights of his career with particular emphasis given to spatial design from direct observation. Wonnacott has painted the Royal Family and in 1997, then Prime Minister, John Major.

He is widely considered one of the best portraitists working in Britain today... Landscape painting, however, is Wonnacott's first love. He continues to paint images of his beloved Thames mudflats and sea scenes as often as he can, as well as cityscapes of London and New York... his preoccupation, the age-old painter's investigation into ways of seeing. His innovation – what makes every picture unmistakably his – is his use of the extraordinarily wide-angled view. –Daily Telegraph
